HEALTHY INFORMED FAMILIES PROGRAM

EVERY TUESDAY, 11am - 2pm

Mallee Family Care and Schools as Community Centres (SaCC) invite local families and community members to join the Healthy Informed Families Program. Come along and hear from local service providers as they share practical information about the programs, services and supports available within our community, including how to access them. These friendly and informative sessions are a great opportunity to learn about local resources, ask questions, build connections and discover the support available for you and your family. Free lunch is provided at every session, with a lucky door prize to be won each time you attend. Transport is also available if required, making it easier for everyone to join in.
